WE HAD THE TIMES OF OUR LIVES!!

MINGO CHITO
1991-1992
YAZOO CITY HIGH SCHOOL
YAZOO CITY JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL
YAZOO CITY, MISSISSIPPI 39194

At school in the streets or on the field
To all frivolous play students yield
They know there is a job to be done
A's to be made and games to be won
We have set this important time aside
To better our strength and our minds.

A TIME TO Work

A TIME TO Play

On the weekends, night and day,
Yazoo students find the time to play
While spending the hours with their friends
After school the fun begins
Pep rallies, parties, parades, too
Give the students something to do.

A TIME TO Embrace

At YHS, we must stand tall
All for one and one for all
To show the spirit of this place
We learn to love, care . . .
embrace.

At three o'clock they ring the bell
 All the students scream and yell.
 Yearbook staffers take a rest
 NHS show magic with finesse.
 Also the bands play their tunes
 Rockin' and rollin' homecoming afternoon.
 The football team is quite a sight
 And enjoy the pep rally before their
 "Fight!"

A TIME TO Celebrate

JUNIOR CLASS

The time has come to rise above all other classes. The junior class has a "growing gratitude." Each year we grow closer and learn to appreciate the value of being a class, not just individuals. We must now work hard to exemplify positive leadership. Beginning the highlight of our high school years, we know that the best is yet to come.

Right: Freshman Beauties and Beaus Will Ellzey, Tonya Ross, Rochelle Richardson and Stanley McCree.

CLASS FAVORITES

Left: Chosen Best Dressed at Yazoo City Junior High are Gabriel Williams, Seventh Grade; Julia Andrews, Eighth Grade; Ann Russell, Seventh Grade; and Trey White, Eighth Grade. Below: Capturing Best Dressed honors at Yazoo City High School are Robert Coleman and Pam Williams.

Below: Those recognized as Cutest at YCJHS are Samuel McGee and Sherita Boddy, Seventh Grade, and Tara Andrews and Charles Watts, Eighth Grade. Right: Cutest at YHS are Jay Woods and Mieko Staples. Bottom left: YCJHS chooses Yari Fry, Eighth Grade; Jermaine Gainwell and Pansy Moore, Seventh Grade; and Velma Roberts, Eighth Grade as Most Athletic. Bottom right: Coaches agree that among the many talented athletics at YHS Michael Bass and Wanda McCullum are tops.

Top: The entire senior class was voted Most School Spirit. The Class of '92 worked together to make the year the best ever at YHS. Right: Marcus Dent and Renita Kaho were elected Friendliest. Above: Nelish Patel and Valerie Robinson captured their classmates attention and were chosen Shyest.

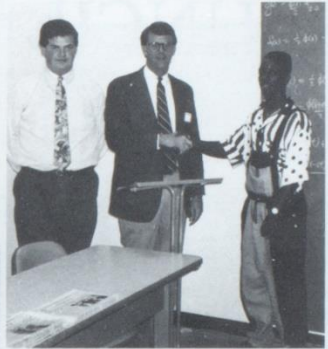

Top: Richard Griffin and Milinda Knight were chosen as Most Versatile. Right: Selected as Biggest Flirts are Alton Taylor and Keisha Johnson. Below: Parrish Posey and Lashun Ford are the two who are Most Likely to Be Missed. Below right: Kim Moorehead and Tommy James are 1992's Wittiest students.

Being elected to Who's Who is indeed an honor. Whether the category is Mr. & Miss YHS or Beauty or Wittiest, each person nominated and elected knows that the student body thinks he is a deserving person, one that is admired and respected. The 1991-1992 Who's Who selections reflect the best of YHS, but they also reflect what makes YHS so great, the student body. Right are pictured Parrish Posey and Angela Hayes. Below are Richard Bass, Ida Andrews, Jill Ewing and Che Bond. At the bottom of the page are pictured Mr. & Miss Eighth Grade Andre Ray and Shannon O'Reilly and Mr. & Miss Seventh Grade, Tiffany Wallace and Terry Rucker. The students were elected by the Yazoo City Junior High School student body.

All County Team
All District Honorable Mention

Indian Coaches, Front: Stanley Logan and Head Coach Bennie Tillman. Back row: Brad Nutter, Maurice Dodd and Toby Melton.

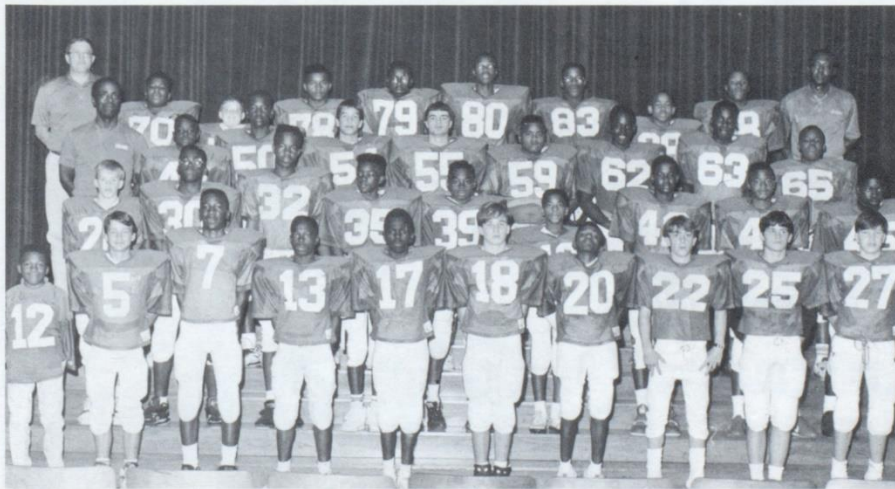

From celebrations after victories, fighting for yardage on the field and cheering at pep rallies, football season brings forth much excitement. This year's seniors showed much leadership during the season and throughout the year. Pictured to the right are Che Bond, Elton Sneed, Alton Taylor, Marcus Dent, Richard Griffin, Terrence Boddy and Leslie Woods.

Indian lettermen are proud of the work they have done throughout the year.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming '91 was spectacular! Homecoming was filled with spirit and activity. Opposite, Smoother-Than-Smooth, Tacky, Indian and Urkel Days kept students involved and readied them for the "BIG DAY." On Thursday YHS paraded down Main Street in all its splendor, and the freshman float was the big winner. Friday's pep rally stirred up fans and Indians alike for the night's game.

OCTOBER 4, 1991

The Freshman float won first place in the Homecoming Parade.

SOFTBALL

The softball team began the season slowly but by the end were in the running for the district title. This new but growing sport at Yazoo High has attracted some of the most determined young ladies in the school, and the prospect of an outstanding program looks good. Above: Seniors who led the team this year are Lisa Howell and Milinda Knight. Below, Team Members, Front row: Marcia Rollins, Milverta Anderson, Milinda Knight, Lisa Howell and Tamalyn Holt. Back row: Assistant coach Christina Engstrom, Stacey Walker, Wanda McCullum, Demetricia Caper, Raymonda Delaware, Carole Sterling and Coach Sammy Brantley.
